ORDER:

In the letter read above, the Registrar, Tamil Nadu Physical Education and Sports University has stated that sports-biomechanics, an engineering science is an emerging and latest science in the field of sports. Any advancement in sports in terms of technique or new record in performance is only due to the application of biomechanics. Biomechanics is useful right from simple loco motor activities like the ergonomics of standing, sitting, walking, running, throwing, jumping and complex movements like sports skills. The Registrar, Tamil Nadu Physical Education and Sports University has added that Centre of Excellence in Sports Biomechanics would be useful in assessing the novice to elite sportspersons' performance and producing international medal winners. It will also be useful in assessing walking and running biomechanics and ergonomics of common people.
